Dear Friends of Search and Care,

As we welcome the change of season, we take a moment to celebrate the extraordinary strength and generosity of our community. Your support has been a beacon of hope, ensuring that our most vulnerable neighbors are not left behind and are able to meaningfully participate and contribute to the world around them.

At Search and Care, we understand the importance of continuously adapting and enhancing our essential services to meet the evolving needs of our participants. This year, we have built new relationships with both individuals in need and partner organizations within our service areas, while nurturing the enduring connections we've cultivated over nearly 52 years.

Our programs are grounded in a relationship-based approach to community social work, emphasizing social connectivity, healthcare access, financial security, technology training, the well-being of pets, and lifelong learning. We're proud that 90% of our participants feel more secure in their homes being connected to Search and Care.

We thank you for your continued commitment to Search and Care.

With heartfelt appreciation,

*Orla Coleman,

How You Can Help

Identify - Contact us about any older person at risk.

Volunteer – Assist clients with telephonic check-ins, visiting, pet upkeep, computer coaching and more.

Kindly Contribute – Your support helps vulnerable older people remain safely independent in their homes.

Healthy Aging in NYC

Needs

A study found that 37% of older New Yorkers reported primary care services are “not very available” in their community, and 64% reported mental health services are not available.

Social isolation and loneliness are correlated with mortality rates 30% higher than normal, feelings of significant depression, anxiety, and increased risk of dementia.

One in five older adults live in poverty which, combined with the prohibitive cost of living, means struggle to pay for basic needs.

A recent study found that, “48% [of older adults] have missed appointments due to inadequate transportation options.”

“Older patients can have extra challenges accessing telehealth... Lack of digital literacy can lead to a negative impact on the quality of care.” (Department of Health and Human Services)

Pet ownership can decrease cognitive decline, blood pressure and stress in older adults.

What We Do

Our Care Management Team provides comprehensive service, helping older people enroll in SNAP, Medicaid, Meals on Wheels, and other benefits.

Groups offer many avenues for socialization, while our Silver Circles program helps clients utilize tech to stay in touch with loved ones.

Our Money Matters Team helps older people become financially secure through assessments, budgeting, document organization, and more.

Medical Escorts help older people keep appointments by accompanying them there and safely back home: acting as a source of support and comfort.

Our Silver Circles Team provides one-on-one computer coaching, teaching about the functions and importance of telehealth apps and services.

Pets + Elders Together (PET) helps with advance pet planning, identifies pet caregivers for emergencies, and defrays the costs of pet care.

Our Story

A Charity Navigator 4-star rated nonprofit with a Candid Platinum Seal of Transparency, formed in 1972 to serve older adults in Manhattan's Upper East Side, East Harlem (2008), Upper West Side (2021). In 52 years, we have provided free, in-home, comprehensive services to 20,000-plus older New Yorkers, largely homebound and with limited support systems, using community-based outreach to identify those in need.

Our Mission

To seek out older people in the community who need help in managing life's daily activities or accessing essential services, and to provide them the support and companionship they require to remain safe and socially connected in their own homes.

Our Community

Manhattan's Carnegie Hill, East Harlem, Upper East Side, Yorkville, and Upper West Side Neighborhoods

Our Core Values

Ensuring our most vulnerable neighbors have access to free, in-home, relationship-based, comprehensive services regardless of faith, gender, race, sexual orientation, or socio-economic status.

Programs and Services

Search and Care offers more than 20 Supportive Services that complement Care Management. This multidisciplinary, relationship-based approach addresses the myriad of older adults' needs as they age safely and connected at home.

Care Management

Our core service to address the whole of clients' needs, Social Workers and Care Managers help with benefits and entitlements, financial management, mental health support, advocating for housing issues, care coordination with referral sources, crisis interventions, and more.

Silver Circles

Our Team offers one-on-one help at clients' homes, via groups, and/or at tech educational workshops. Help ranges from teaching email and video-conferencing to connect with loved ones, to helping them become proficient with telehealth apps such as MyChart increasingly used by healthcare providers.

Pets & Elders Together (PET)

This program helps older pet guardians care for their companion animals—often their sole source of affection. Services range from advance pet planning; to defraying the cost of food, veterinary care, grooming, surgeries, medication, and more via an Emergency Pet Fund.

Money Matters

The Team helps older people attain financial security. They provide consultation and advice, help with bill paying, develop budgets, help apply for stipends, deliver funds to the homebound, organize documents, and address other monetary needs as they arise.

Medical Escorting

Escorts go with clients to appointments, stay for the duration, and accompany them back home. Since many clients are frail, suffer from vision problems, and/or are fearful of going alone, this service helps to ensure they keep in-person health appointments.

Cognitive Health

This service helps clients access cognitive and mental health resources, ensures they are enrolled in health benefits, refers them to our Stronger Memory workshop series, and offers supportive counseling—including sessions with Talkin' It Out Social Workers for clients with complex needs.

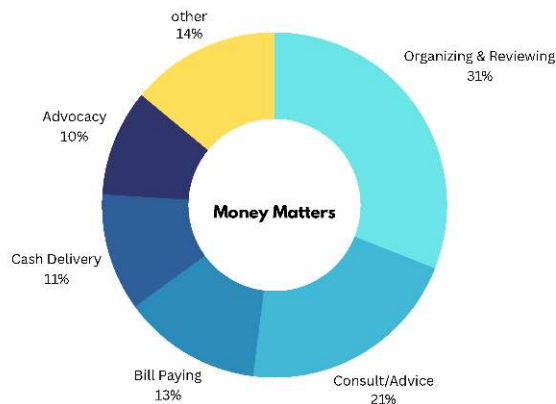

Groups

The program addresses social isolation, teaches skills, offers cognitively stimulating activities, and forges camaraderie among participants outside of groups. Approximately 25 hybrid in-person and virtual sessions are offered each month—particularly important for the homebound.

Nutrition

The Community Nutritionist helps design personalized meal plans, provides individual and/or group nutritional counselling, and offers access to our Emergency Grocery Fund. The goal is to ensure they eat nutritious, culturally appropriate, and enjoyable meals to prevent food insecurity.

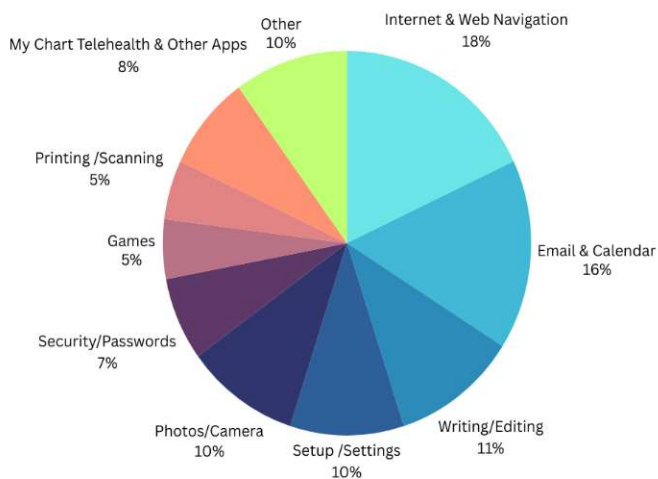

Money Matters Helping Clients Attain Financial Security

I am so thrilled with S&C, the way they've treated me and how well I've benefitted from being connected with them... everything from the food lady to [Care Manager] to everyone I've dealt with--spectacular, superior to any other group...
